

Christin Hankins

Christin Hankins has been a faithful member of Second Presbyterian Church for 18 years. Following 50 hours of Stephen Ministry training, she was commissioned on April 27 to provide Christ-centered care and support to those facing life's challenges. Her deep commitment to service is reflected in her past roles as a Deacon and member of the Outreach, Stewardship, and Youth Committees, and in her ongoing support of the children and youth ministry.
